Check in

Let's get you all checked in!

Q: When can I check-in?

A: Yay! It's move-in day! The date of your occupation is stipulated in your lease agreement. On that day you may check in after 12pm. Early check-in can be arranged should the unit be ready for occupation.

Q: Where do I check-in?

A: Check-in at the security front desk which is accessible from the main entrance of the building. Here you will be guided through the check-in process.

Q: How do I get access to Newgrounds and my room?

A: We need your prints! At the security front desk, you will register for fingerprint access to the building. You will then be shown to your room.

Q: What should I bring?

- A:
- Your own linen, i.e. pillows, mattress protectors, sheets, blankets or duvets, pillowcases, curtains, and towels. Sheets must be used on the beds at all times.
 - Your own crockery and cookware, which must be made of cast iron or stainless steel for use on the Induction hot plates*
 - Desk chair
 - Padlock for your room door
 - Your own personal touch
 - An amazing attitude
 - *Note on Induction Hot Plates :
 - Induction hot plates are safer to use than conventional hobs but only work with cookware made of cast iron or stainless steel. When using the hot plate: the control system will shut down the element if a pot is not present, not large enough, or when its contents have boiled dry. Newgrounds Management advises residents that the glass ceramic top can be damaged by a hard impact or sliding cookware across the glass surface. Aluminium foil can melt onto the top also causing permanent damage.

Q: What am I not allowed to bring?

- A:
- Weapons
 - Illegal substances
 - Heaters
 - Infants or children
 - Pets
 - Flammable items
 - Electrical meters
 - Alcohol
 - Children u16
